

Rebirth Style Handbags Give Back

Written by Kirstina Bolton

Rebirth Style teams up with Miss Arizona, Erika Frantzve, and her charity Everyday Heroes like You.

“We are so excited to team up with Erika and her wonderful charity” said Tracey Martin, designer and co-founder of Rebirth style handbags and accessories. Rebirth has established themselves as one of the premiere handbags on the market today. Rebirth is a conscious brand; which means that they believe in giving back and touching the lives of the women that purchase their bags. “We want women to understand that they are beautiful and can achieve their vision and dreams” said Martin. The story of Rebirth is sewn into each bag. “The bags are made from hand woven rugs from India. The symbol of the rug, something that is used in front of a door way and can be turned into something beautiful and desired; just the way we want women in today’s world to feel.”

Erika Frantzve picked her favorite Rebirth bag, the Malibu Hobo in Dove Grey. “This is our classic hobo bag” said Martin.

For every bag sold on the web, Rebirth will donate $25 to Everyday Heroes Like you charity. We will continue to do this through the end of Erika’s reign. Everyday Heroes like You is an amazing charity. “They align themselves to help many different charities and not just focus on one. As we know there are so many in need in today’s world” said Martin.
