I Am An Adult

Every bone in my body said "No, Claire. There is not one reason on this great, green Earth that you should buy a Stuffed Boo by Gund, Claire." But as I approached it, sitting on the Urban Outfitters register as I was checking out, and it soon was in a bag on my shoulder.

You would have done it, too.

It's the perfect replica of everyone's favorite, cushy, soft, adorable puppy Boo. You should take one home to your favorite kid, but you should especially buy yourself one if you're an adult, because you probably need a little Boo essence in your life. He now lives on my kitchen counter.
