

Not Boring: PINK by Victoria's Secret V-Neck

Written by Claire Perkins

Not Boring

Yes, this is something you can get in any shopping center in the United States. It is a plain V-neck t-shirt in cotton. It's also something everyone in the world probably has, in one color or another.

BUT: they're not boring. These particular T-shirts are by far the most-worn items in my closet every summer. They fit perfectly, don't stretch, don't fade and come in a rainbow of the prettiest bold, neon and pastel colors.

Every time I pass a VS I walk in, on autopilot, and get 2/$28.

Victoria's Secret PINK, $2/28.
