Seasonal Decor

I love the idea of seasonal decor- it's an idea as old as Martha Stewart Living, but still an idea I want to adopt.

You take a plain room and sprinkle each season with accessories and decor to fit the weather, your mood, your current Pinterest board. Now that we're heading into summer, I want these West Elm flamingo pillows to put on my white Crate & Barrel Petrie sofa.

And at $29 each, the price is right!
