It's A Boring Heat

In Arizona, sunglasses are essentially the only article of clothing you can have fun with when the temps hit a 300 degrees. What can do with your billowey white tops and shorts? Put a belt on it? I guess, but that's not very exciting.

A wide collection of jewelry and sunglasses styles and colors is important if you don't want to look boring this summer. This pair of acetate Prada Baroque glasses is super distinctive and interesting - no aviators here.
