

Vistancia's Second Annual Music and Wine Festival

Written by Virginia McInnis

The Vistancia community welcomes the 2nd annual music and wine festival on Saturday, November 5th. This stunning community creates the perfect backdrop and atmosphere for the return of the Vistancia music and wine festival. The event will be from 10am to 8pm.

The festival will consist of many local restaurants, wine makers along with wine/beer tastings, and entertainment by renowned local performers. There will be a lifestyle marketplace available during the festivities. This unique way of shopping will allow guests to explore various vendors and artists from around the Valley!

The wines being offered at the festival are from Arizona, California, and other regions. Some of the wineries and breweries that will be available at the festival include Jerome Vineyards located in Jerome, Ariz., Del Fava Family Winery located in Healdsburg, Calif., Rock Bottom Brewery and Sonoran Brewing Company, and others. Wine lovers may also enjoy wines compliments of The Tasting Room, Quintessential Wines, and many more. Not much of a wine or beer drinker? This festival does include tequila sampling from Cruz Tequila and Mexican Moonshine.

Foodies be prepared for some good eats from Chipotle Grill, Johnny's BBQ, Macayo's Mexican Grill, Squid Ink Sushi, DeCio Pasta, and many more delicious eatiers.

Attendees can enjoy entertainment from a number of celebrated local performers. The list includes, The Screaming Javelinas, Curtis Haywood, Cold Shott and the Hurricane Horns, J. Powers Band, Rebecca De La Torre, Gabriel Bey aka "Spooky Kool," and Will "SureWill" Clark and Joel "JdR" Del Rosario, both backed by The Sophisticated Gents.

Music-goers and attendees alike will not be disappointed with this line-up. Performances range from original music to new takes on classic hits. Each artist/group uses a variety of instruments, harmonicas to banjos to sax to vocals, and more! All the performers have impressive histories. From performing with Grammy award winning artists, tours, notable venues, and many other accomplishments. One performance group is even celebrating their 20th anniversary this year! Find out who when you come celebrate at the Vistancia music and wine festival.

Guests will not only have a ball at this event, but a portion of the proceeds will help benefit Fighter Country Foundation. This not-for-profit organization aids, supports, and honors airmen and families in need at Luke Air Force Base.

Ticket prices are reasonably priced for such a fabulous event. Prices include $25 advanced/military discount, $30 day of general admission, $10 for children 12 and under. Are you a wine connoisseur? Pay an additional $15 for exclusive wine tasting.
