

Written by Ashley Pearlstein

Summer and spring are busy times of the year for animal adoption agencies across Arizona. This means that now is the best time to adopt a puppy or kitten in need. Here is some information about the Humane Society of Southern Arizona and how you can help out!

Adopting

Interested adopters can visit the Humane Society's website, or visit them in person to find their perfect four-legged companion. On any given day, there are dozens of adorable animals waiting to be adopted. Fees for cat and dog adoption range from $80 to $300, depending on the size and age of the animal.

Adoption Deals

The Humane Society offers special deals throughout the year for dog and cat adoptions. Thursdays, retired and active military members can receive half off all adoptions. The Silver Paw Special, a deal offered every Wednesday at all locations, adopters age 55 and older can adopt dogs and cats for free.

Why Choose the Humane Society

Not only are there a variety of adorable furry friends at the Humane Society, but it is also a comfortable pace for adopters. With special deals for adopters, a variety of extras offered, and a handful of caring, helpful staff, the Humane Society is a great place for those who wish to gain another family member. All animals are pre-spayed and neutered, provided with an identification microchip, provided with a collar and tag, offered a free first visit to the veterinarian, and come with their initial round of vaccinations already complete.

How to Help

For those who are unable to adopt an animal, but still wish to help the Humane Society, there are plenty of ways to work with the animals and friendly staff. Tucson citizens can donate money, become a member, and volunteer with the Humane Society. Anyone above age 15 and who loves animals is welcome to volunteer with the Humane Society.

More information about volunteering, adoptions, and the Humane Society can be found at www.hssaz.org.