Fall is a great excuse to shop! Check out these new local boutiques to get your shopping fix.

Jam

This up and coming boutique is located in the historical Charles Miller home in the newly developed Charles Miller Square. A creative venue bringing together the best - a space of inspiration, magic and bliss. This artisans boutique is also THE space for crafts and classes in the arena of arts, social interests, and gatherings. They have "created a feeling that taps into your spirit and feels like home." You are sure to find the perfect outfit for a classy date or a fun dinner.

Savvy Boutique

Located less than a mile from the ASU campus in Tempe, Savvy Boutique offers an array of contemporary styles and price points so all ages and income levels can shop that are participate in their fashion vision. With "iconic brands like Miss Me Jeans down to the handmade jewelry by local artists, Savvy Boutique keeps fashion forward styles flowing in Tempe."

* Chandler store is set to open by the end of October 2011. 590 N Alma School Rd Chandler, AZ 85225 in Granada Plaza in between Floridino's Pizza and The Scrapbook Store.

Willows

The Willows is a lavish home furnishings and lifestyle atelier and showroom offering our customers a comfy, yet naturally elegant collection of beautiful finds. They "offer timeless appeal to your home or office with objects for a life well lived." The Willows' owner Beverly Burch is very talented and when her new store opened it was well-received and had customers admiring everything they found in the store. Having outgrown its original location, the Willows moved into a larger location in 2001 and again, to its present location, in 2006. The style of the Willows has evolved and grown as well. Bev now describes it as "simply French refined, with a casual flair."
