

Encanterra's The Good Life Fest Picks Up Steam

Written by Claire Perkins

Tuesday, 01 February 2011 10:02 - Last Updated Tuesday, 01 February 2011 13:39

Encanterra's The Good Life Fest started off with a bang January 29, 2011 with their Kenny G concert, and has second and third installments in the concert series coming, including a March 5 event featuring Three Dog Night and The Guess Who, and an April 10 concert featuring Chicago.

The beautiful weather and droves of Valley music and wine lovers made for a perfect kickoff to Encanterra's The Good Life Fest concert series.

Guests were floored when they entered the open gates to the community, as they saw the unbelievable clubhouse and high-quality homes perched on the rolling fairways. The community offers the biggest clubhouse in the state, a Tom Lehman-designed golf course, a nearby (and brand new) Banner hospital and beautiful views of mountain landscapes.

The San Tan, North Scottsdale, Phoenix and even Canadian guests had tons to take in at the fest, including:

- Wine tastings- each guest received a lanyard with a wine glass, which they could then take to the community's various models to taste 10-12 delicious vinos while viewing the luxurious homes
- Gourmet food tastings from luxury vendors
- Tours of the 50,000 sq.-ft. clubhouse, designed by world-renowned architect Bing Hu, with reservations available before and after showtime at the restaurant and bars inside
- Meet and Greet with Kenny G
- A plaza of local exhibitor booths, from fine wines, cigars and culinary treats to fine art, furniture, boutique clothing and massage therapies
- Both General Admission and VIP tables (which offer delectable eats and bottomless fruit & cheese platters)
- Musical acts on the headliner stage beginning at 4 p.m.

For photos of the Kenny G concert held January 29, click here.

For the Daily 60 video of Kenny G, click here.

Encanterra's The Good Life Fest will feature a 60's extravaganza March 5 when Three Dog Night and The Guess Who perform, and April 10, when they welcome Chicago!

Click here for more information on the March 5 event and here for more information on the April 10 event.