Celebrate mother nature with a beautiful bouquet of organic flowers from Organic Bouquet, which also benefits a variety of charities helping out the earth in many ways. All flowers meet rigorous criteria making them grown with the least environmental impact.

Keep America Beautiful Blue Iris

Keep America Beautiful Inc. is a non-profit education and community improvement organization, which urges individuals to prevent litter and reduce, reuse and recycle. Each of these bouquets come with 15 blue iris blossoms with Bear Grass. Ten percent of the proceeds go to Keep America Beautiful. $49.95

American Lung Association Red Rose Bouquet

Since 1904, the American Lung Association has been working to educate and save lives. Traditionally red roses are given representing courage, respect and congratulations. Each bouquet comes with 12 stem red roses, and five percent of the proceeds will go to the American Lung Association. $49.95

Green America Green Roses

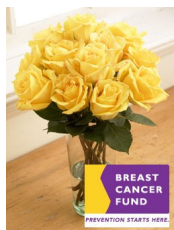

Green roses for Green America is a smart, poetic choice by Organic Bouquet. Green America's mission to harness economic power is one we can take away on Earth Day, April 22. Creating an environmentally sustainable society is what this organization hopes to get across to people. Each bouquet come with 12 long-stem roses, and five percent of the proceeds will go to Green America. $49.95
