

Fall Movie Preview

Written by Thuy An Bui

Friday, 23 September 2011 12:43 - Last Updated Tuesday, 27 September 2011 11:26

From family-friendly flicks to anticipated remakes, here are some new upcoming movies that you can find at a selected theatre near you this fall.

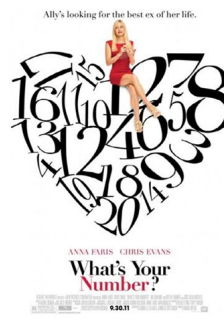

Dolphin Tale, September 23

Starring Nathan Gamble, Ashley Judd, Harry Connick Jr. and Morgan Freeman, Dolphin Tale is inspired by a true heartwarming story of a dolphin that lost her tail and the efforts of an 11-year old boy and the people who try to help save her life.

50/50, September 30

50/50 is a comedic film that tells the story of a young man named Adam, played by Joseph Gordon-Levitt, who had just been diagnosed with cancer. With the help from his best friend Kyle, played by Seth Rogen, he will go through struggles and learn how to cope with the disease.

What's Your Number?, September 30

Usually people try to steer clear of old exes, but hopeless Ally Darling has thoughts of whether one of her past boyfriends is actually supposed to be "the one". From the help of Colin Shea, her neighbor, they track down all of her exes to see if she really missed her one true love. What's Your Number? is a romantic comedy that stars Anna Faris and Chris Evans.

Fall Movie Preview

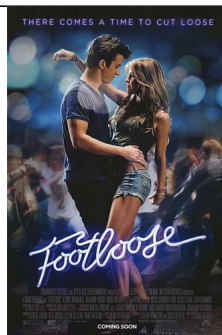

Written by Thuy An Bui

Friday, 23 September 2011 12:43 - Last Updated Tuesday, 27 September 2011 11:26

The Ides of March, October 7

Directed by and starring George Clooney, he introduces a plot where Ryan Gosling plays Stephen Meyers, a regular employee that becomes a part of a new presidential candidate campaign. Along the road, Meyers takes part in a political scandal and learns about the corruption of politics.

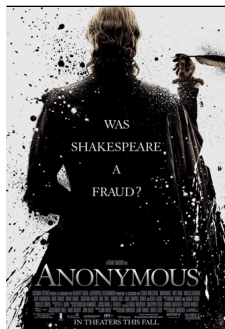

Footloose, October 24

A remake of the original hit and sensational film that centers on Ren McCormack, a city boy who moves to a small town where any type of rock music and dancing have been outlawed because of a prior tragic accident. Starring Kenny Wormald, Julianne Hough and Dennis Quaid.

Paranormal Activity 3, October 21

Paranormal Activity is known as one of the most thrilling and scary movies series so far and they are at it again. When a couple documents the eerie occurrences happening to them, they discover that they are being haunted by evil spirits in their own home.

Anonymous, October 28

Starring Rhys Ifans, Vannesa Redgrave and Davi Thewlis, Anonymous takes place in 17th century London. This thriller sets out to explore the theories of the authenticity of William Shakespeare's classic stories during the ruling of Queen Elizabeth I.

Fall Movie Preview

Written by Thuy An Bui

Friday, 23 September 2011 12:43 - Last Updated Tuesday, 27 September 2011 11:26

Puss in Boots, November 4

Voiced by Antonio Banderas, Puss in Boots is the charming and smooth-talking cat from Shrek who now stars in his own film. Embark with him on his journey before he met Shrek and Donkey that involves fighting bad guys and saving the day.

Twilight Saga: Breaking Dawn Part 1, November 18

Starring Kristen Stewart, Robert Pattinson and Taylor Lautner, the popular vampire love series that makes everyone swoon and crazy for is almost coming to an end. Part one of Breaking Dawn follows Bella's struggle to deal with an unexpected problem and how to find a solution to save the people she loves.