"The Girl With the Dragon Tattoo," December 23

Based on the popular book trilogy, "The Girl With the Dragon Tattoo" covers the murder of Harriet Vanger as it is brought back to the surface by a pair hoping to solve the mystery. Suspicions are that someone in the family had murdered her, but deep secrets in the family make solving the case a difficult project to take on and leads everyone to question how evidence and steps to solving the case had been hidden so well for so long.

"Roadie," January 6

Landing his dream road crew job for the Blue Oyster Cult as a teenager, Jimmy Testagross was living the perfect life. With a turn in the economy, he was let go at the age of 40, forcing him to rethink his path. Roadie explores his new, unexpected life as he runs into old friends and bullies from high school and has to deal with adult responsibilities like taking care of his aging mother.

"Contraband," January 13

Mark Wahlberg is the star in this action-packed movie about the dark world of international smuggling, dangerous criminals and corruption. He faces the decision on whether or not to return to the world of contraband that he was once a part of in trying to save his wife and sons from being put in danger themselves.
