

High-End Bicycle Shop Expands to Old Town

Written by Jena Coolidge
Wednesday, 18 July 2012 16:44 -

Extra! Extra!

Bicycle junkies of the valley will be excited to hear of the expansion of high-end bicycle shop, Bicycle Haus.

The premier bicycle shop is moving from the Southeast corner of 5th Ave. and Goldwater to 7113 1st Ave. and doubling its current space to more than 5,000 square feet.

Award-winning architect and bicycle enthusiast, Jack Debartolo, owner of debartolo architects, has designed the new shop. Aside from its new contemporary design, the Bicycle Haus will feature increased retail space, a three-car garage and additional exclusive premier bicycle brands and equipment.

The date of completion is set for late Spring 2013. For more information, visit bicyclehaus.com